MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD

Dear Contributors/Best Bydraers

There has been an increase in housebreakings in the residential and business areas. Thursdays Fridays and Sundays are the days that most of these crimes are committed. Laptops, jewellery, cellphones and cash are the items most frequently stolen. When going to bed at night lock your laptop away or hide it in a place where it will not easily be found, and do not leave your cellphone and wallet where it can be seen when looking through your window. Have lights in your garden; a light with a motion sensor is very effective. Criminals do not like to be seen!

Die Somerset-Wes 'Community Police Forum' (CPF) het 'n nuwe web-adres, naamlik www.somersetwestcpf.org.za. Hierdie web-adres word gebruik om inwoners oor aspekte van veiligheid en sekuriteit in te lig. Wanneer u op hierdie web-adres registreer sal u ook kan deelneem aan verskillende besprekings en so waardevolle inligting bekom. Die sukses van hierdie web-adres hang veral van die inwoners se deelname af.

To help the HCW pro-active service to be even more efficient we need you to phone the patrol vehicle when any suspicious person or activity is noticed. The patrol vehicle will investigate as soon as possible, and you may stop a crime from being committed.

HCW reël, in samewerking met die Helderberg Tak van die Kaapse Sakekamer, 'n aanbieding deur minister Lennit Max, LUR vir Veiligheid en Sekuriteit, Weskaap. Die geleentheid vind plaas by die Lord Charles Hotel, Somerset-Wes op 5 Oktober 2009 om 18:00 vir 18:30. Toegang sal R15 per persoon wees. Bevestig u teenwoordig met 'n epos aan mnr Tom Kessler by tom@capechamber.co.za.
